

Vimeo Stands for Net Neutrality

March 19, 2021

Today Vimeo, alongside Mozilla, Dropbox, Reddit, Eventbrite and more, issued a letter to FCC Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel to reiterate its position of support on Net Neutrality.

Vimeo's statement on this matter follows below.

Net Neutrality protects creativity, innovation, and free speech on the internet— everything that Vimeo stands for. We have long advocated for Net Neutrality, not only because it is directly related to our ability to provide valuable offerings to users, but also because we fundamentally believe that open access to the internet is indispensable for ensuring everyone can use the internet to express themselves freely.
