PURPOSE

The Compensation and Human Capital Management Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Vimeo, Inc. (the “Company”) to discharge the Board’s responsibilities relating to the compensation of non-employee directors and Executive Officers.¹ The Committee shall have the authority and overall responsibility for approving and evaluating all compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company as they affect the non-employee directors and Executive Officers and shall fulfill such other responsibilities set forth in this Charter. Additionally, the Committee is responsible for overseeing the Company’s culture and human capital management, including diversity and inclusion.

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Committee shall have a minimum of two members. All members must (1) be non-employee directors pursuant to Rule 16b-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1933 (the “Exchange Act”); and (b) satisfy Nasdaq’s independence requirements. These membership requirements shall be subject to exemptions and cure periods permitted by the rules of Nasdaq and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), as in effect from time to time.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed, and vacancies filled or members removed, by the Board. At the discretion of the Board, one member of the Committee shall be appointed as its Chair (the “Chairperson”) by the Board. A Committee member may resign from Committee membership by giving written notice to the Board and may do so without resigning from the Board.

MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines necessary to carry out its responsibilities. The Chairperson, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of the Committee meetings and shall set meeting agendas consistent with this Charter. The Chairperson shall preside at each meeting or, in the absence of the Chairperson, one of the other members of the Committee shall be designated, by the members present at the meeting, as the acting chair of the meeting.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of holding a meeting and the Committee may act by vote of a majority of members present at a meeting. In lieu of a meeting, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent in accordance with the Company’s certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

No Executive Officer should attend that portion of any meeting where such Executive Officer’s performance or compensation is discussed, unless specifically invited by the Committee. The Chief Executive Officer may not be present during voting or deliberations related to their compensation.

COMMITTEE AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain or obtain the advice of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to assist it in the performance of its duties, but only after taking into consideration those independence factors specified in the Nasdaq rules. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any adviser retained by the Committee, and shall have sole authority to approve the adviser’s fees and the other terms and conditions of the adviser’s retention. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any adviser retained by the Committee.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate. The Committee may delegate to one or more officers of the Company the authority to make grants of awards of equity-based compensation to eligible individuals other than Section 16 reporting persons under the Company’s incentive-compensation or other equity-based plans as the Committee deems appropriate and in accordance with the terms of such plans. Any officer to whom the Committee grants such authority shall regularly report to the Committee grants so made and the Committee may revoke any delegation of authority at any time.

The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board. The Committee shall review and assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

The Committee may also make similar compensation related decisions with respect to other employees of the Company if Board or Committee approval is required or desirable as determined by legal counsel.

2. Receive periodic reports on the Company’s compensation programs as they affect all employees.

3. Review and approve the compensation and benefits of non-employee directors, including under any equity-based compensation plans.

4. Approve grants of equity compensation in accordance with Board-approved equity compensation plans and the delegation of such grants to the extent permitted thereunder and hereunder.

5. 6. Monitor the Company’s compliance with the requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 relating to loans to directors and officers, and with all other applicable laws affecting employee compensation and benefits.

7. 8. From time to time, review or discuss with management or the Board the Company’s policies, strategies and progress related to human capital management, including, among others, matters relating to recruiting, employee engagement, retention, career development and progression, employment practices, and diversity and inclusion.
